"Can you do that coming down?" Golden asked, and Diamond said..,despise him for taking such things seriously, maybe knowing they would not understand them..All the way down the spinning, reeking stone stairs he talked, and Otter tried to understand..,"She will when the time comes. But she has no part to play in your decision, Diamond. Women know..She had no wish to explore for herself. The peacefulness of the place called for stillness, watching, listening; and she knew how tricky the paths were, and that the Grove was, as the Patterner put it, "bigger inside than outside". She sat down in a patch of sun-dappled shade and watched the shadows of the leaves play across the ground. The oakmast was deep; though she had never seen wild swine in the wood, she saw their tracks here. For a moment she caught the scent of a fox. Her thoughts moved as quietly and easily as the breeze moved in the warm light..image of Anieb as he had first seen her, a dying woman standing alone in the tower room, was
